1. Introduction

Art. 1. Name

There is an association pursuant to art. 60-79 of the civil code under the name Verein vACC Schweiz (vACC Switzerland association). It is part of the VATSIM community.

Art. 2. Domicile

The association is located at the president's residence.

Art. 3. Object

- The purpose of the association is to promote and exercise flight simulation and virtual air traffic control on the VATSIM network free of costs.
- vACC Switzerland is to give the opportunity for camaraderie and exchange of experience and knowledge through (virtual) meetings.
- Training and teaching in aviation matters shall be performed by the vACC or its fellow organizations within the VATSIM network.

2. Governing Bodies

Art. 4. Overview

The governing bodies are the general assembly of members (general assembly) and the executive committee (staff).

Art. 5. Opting-Out

No financial audit shall be performed if the bookkeeping is clear and accessible to all members.

3. General Assembly of Members

Art. 6. Supreme Body

The general assembly is the supreme governing body. It supervises the staff and can recall it at any time by resolution.

Art. 7. Meetings

- The assembly convenes at the president's invitation. The meeting can be held by electronic means. The scheduling shall respect public holidays. The invitation must be made at least 30 days in advance.
- Points to the agenda of Agenda items for the assembly must be sent to the president via e-mail latest 14 days prior to the assembly.
- The president shall summon the meeting annually, at their discretion and when requested by the staff or a fifth of the voting members.

Art. 8. Elections

- The staff is elected by those members of the general assembly that have voting right on any day of the election. An election is deemed successful if a simple majority is satisfied, whereby the candidate obtains the approval of more than half of the votes cast.
- The vote shall be secret and equal. Votes by proxy are allowed if the election is held at an actual meeting.
- The elections are organized by ACCSUI6 and supervised by ACCSUI2.

Art. 9. Resolutions

- Resolutions are taken by the simple majority of the voting members present at the general assembly, such a majority being defined as requiring the approval of more than half of the votes cast.
- Resolutions cannot contradict the VATEUD regulations nor contravene to the application of the usual training standards.

Art. 10. Amendment

- It is the general assembly's exclusive power to amend these articles of association by means of a resolution supported by two thirds of the voting members.

Art. 11. Dissolution

- vACC Switzerland as a legal entity can be dissolved at any time by resolution of the members. The resulting simple partnership remains an official vACC unless otherwise specified by VATEUD.
- This form of dissolution is considered a change to these articles and subject to VATEUD's approval.
- The net assets shall be distributed at the general assembly's discretion to groups having the same or a similar purpose.

4. Executive Committee

Art. 12. Members

The staff consists of the president and the six departments' leaders. It is elected for two years.

Art. 13. Deputies

Staff members may name a deputy director per department. Those are entitled to act as voting representatives of the department before the remainder of the staff. They may be dismissed by the department leader.

Art. 14. Departments

- There shall be six departments that act as expert taskforces to complete the tasks required to run vACC Switzerland.
- The president (ACCSUI1) supervises and coordinates the departments. They are vACC Switzerland's representative with higher authorities such as VATEUD.
- The vice-president (ACCSUI11) aids and assists the president in their tasks and responsibilities. Holders of this office must be staff members themselves and, if none apply to be ACCSUI11, the office is given to the first staff member mentioned next in this article holding the required rating.
- The membership department's director (ACCSUI2) is responsible for maintaining the member list. They handle general questions concerning membership and accompanies the members in their VATSIM career. Furthermore, they promote comradeship amongst the members and arbitrates conflicts if needed.
- The ATC training department's director (ACCSUI3) runs and develops the training system for virtual air traffic controllers. They teach mentors to perform the trainings and assigns examiners. Their further tasks include the definition of training standards as well as duties derived from other VATSIM institutions' regulations.
- The pilot training department's director (ACCSUI4) runs and develops the training system for pilots. This includes the publishing of training documents and the performance of exams, in cooperation with other vACCs where needed.
- The operation department's director (ACCSUI5) is responsible for the updating and publication of charts and reference materials adapted to the needs of pilots and controllers under the VATSIM environment.
- The administration department's director (ACCSUI6) organises events on the network or in real life. They are also responsible for the maintenance of a corporate identity and the quality control of all charts and documents.
- The technology department's director (ACCSUI7) is vACC Switzerland's webmaster and operates the forum and servers. They shall strive to the constant improvement of those systems in order to reduce the administrative burden created by the vACC.
- For some positions a VATSIM Controller Rating may be required. Those ratings are according the VATEUD Division Policy. The candidate for those offices must hold the rating according to this policy, exceptions may be granted by VATEUD on a case by case base.
- Shall the office as ACCSUI1 become vacant, it is assumed by the staff member rated controller (C1) at least and first mentioned in this article.
- Any changes to this article are subject to VATEUD's approval.

Art. 15. Subscription Rights

Subscription rights are granted at the president's discretion. They hold individual subscription rights.
